Presidential election 2020. Rafał Trzaskowski in Gorzów Wielkopolski

I will have only one boss. You will be the boss – declared Rafał Trzaskowski in Gorzów Wielkopolski, where he emphasized that as president he would be guided by “his own insight, his own reason and what people will tell him.”

Trzaskowski at a meeting with the inhabitants of Gorzów Wielkopolski emphasized that after the presidential election there will be two options: the first assumes that it will be as it is today. – Then we will have a president who, after dark, will sign everything that Jarosław Kaczyński suggests to him – he noted.

– There will be times when there will be an attack on local government, where there will be an attack on free media, where the attack on Polish teachers and Polish teachers will continue – he exchanged. – These will be times when everyone who thinks differently, looks differently, has different views, will be attacked all the time – said Trzaskowski. – But we have enough of such times – he noted.

“Imagine such times”

The second option – as Trzaskowski said – are times when there is no longer PiS president Jarosław Kaczyński on the Polish political scene. “Imagine times when the phone no longer rings in the President’s Office in the middle of the night from one and the same person, and imagine times when we have a truly independent president who listens to citizens and not his political party,” said Trzaskowski. – Today we need a strong, hard, independent president who will be able to look at the authorities in his hand – he emphasized.

Trzaskowski caught in the crowd of people the cries of a man who asked him for a “guarantee” of independence. – You are absolutely right that you ask questions about the guarantee. The guarantees are very simple: I make it clear that anyone who wants to work in the president’s office will have to submit a party ID. I guarantee you one thing, straight in the eye saying this: at night I will sleep with my wife, and not sign a bill I have not read – he said.

Trzaskowski: you will be my boss

Trzaskowski criticized the incumbent Andrzej Duda for his addiction to Law and Justice – the party he comes from. – The president is able to speak with the voice of only one party and we differ in this – said the candidate KO. – I will have only one boss, you will be the boss – said Trzaskowski to those gathered in Gorzów Wielkopolski. They answered him with shouts: “Poland is all for Rafał”. – Today we must mobilize all those who want to support the change, so that each of them appears at the ballot boxes – argued Trzaskowski. He assured that all laws that would reach him as president would read and consult with citizens and trade unions. – Today, the president does not consult almost anyone. You have to talk to entrepreneurs, trade unions, people. I will be guided by my own insight, my own reason and what people will tell me – declared the candidate of the Civic Coalition. “I will cooperate with the rulers where they propose rational things,” he added.

According to Trzaskowski, “this Sunday (July 12) can be very efficient.” – As I say that a certain generation of politicians should move away from the reins of power, that we all have enough of Jaroslaw Kaczynski, it sounds like a certain spell, a dream that many of you share, but this is the strength of the electoral card. If we are able to bring about change and become a strong, independent president, then first of all we will deprive Mr. Jarosław of the ability to make these daily calls and give the president blind laws to sign – he explained.

“Head to head”

– If you will all be together, if you persuade more people who are hesitating or want to stay at home, that everyone goes to the elections on Sunday, then you can decide about this change – said Trzaskowski. – It’s really very close. Colloquial speech is said head to head. Perhaps it is you, gathered here, these several thousand people, will decide about this change. Now or never, he said.

The KO candidate pointed out that “a few weeks ago it seemed that everything was settled”. – Today is a great chance to win. It really is that either now or maybe never – he argued.
